

Leave my privacy alone. It is so peacefull being able to have dinner without the phone ringing off the hook. We don't allow our kids to have calls during meals, but banks and sales people want to call? Some even have the nerve to call on Sun. morning. Leave our state laws alone.